Peer Learning Facilitator Application (cont.)

Questions

1. What is your understanding of AAP, AAP F/TSP, and Peer Learning and how do they all relate? Why are you interested in working for AAP F/TSP Peer Learning?
2. Describe what drives your facilitation pedagogy (sometimes understood as a teaching pedagogy)? How would you explain your role as a “Peer Learning Facilitator” to incoming Freshmen/Transfer students? How would you conduct your sessions? How would you assess the quality of your sessions?
3. What experiences have you had that are related to facilitating, mentoring, academic advising discussion sessions with a research and writing focus? How would you explain the researching and writing process to an incoming UCLA student? What would you target as main objectives to focus on a college level writing and researching? How would you incorporate critical thinking, engaged dialogue, and a social justice framework in your sessions to meet the above goals?
4. How would you relate Honors Collegium 26/101A to students’ other major courses and upper division writing course? Students in the program are oriented to think about their courses in relation to one another during the summer program. What are some of the difficulties that adjunct curriculums create? How would you address those problems as a Peer Learning Facilitator?
5. What is your knowledge of the current community conditions and campus climate that exists in relation to People of Color and historically marginalized communities specifically at UCLA? How can a research course empower entering UCLA AAP students to excel throughout their undergraduate careers and beyond? What do you foresee are the challenges and opportunities that these courses may present to AAP students? How do you anticipate your PLF position in aiding AAP students to thrive in an abbreviated quarter?
6. What do you have to contribute to the F/TSP team? Describe experiences, knowledge, attitude, and skills that make you a good fit for this position. What unique qualities, ideas, energies, etc., would you bring to the team? What are some areas of growth you would like to develop within this position?
